

Marino Tapiador

In the Spanish IT Security Evaluation and Certification Scheme, Dr. Marino Tapiador is responsible of the technical management of the Spanish CB that is the organization in charge of Common Criteria, ITSEC and other IT Security evaluations in Spain.

Marino Tapiador contributes to the development of IT Security evaluation standards as Common Criteria, he is member of the CC Development Board, CC Maintenance Board and JIL working groups. The interest of Marino Tapiador is focused on research areas related to IT Security evaluation methodologies and electronic identification technologies e.g. smartcards, biometric devices, or PKI systems. Previously Marino has worked for IBM Spain as IT Architect, and as Associate Professor in the Autonomous University of Madrid where he obtained a Ph.D. on Computer Engineering.