

Markus Mackenbrock

Markus Mackenbrock works for the Bundesamt für Sicherheit in der Informationstechnik (BSI), Germany. Markus has studied physics and after a few years experience in the private sector Markus works for BSI since 1993. He was involved in the development of the Common Criteria from the beginning. Since 2002 he is head of the unit Accreditation and responsible for the accreditation of testing laboratories for conducting CC evaluations under the German scheme. In addition, Markus is involved in developing Protection Profiles (PP), especially for the German Health System.